

Social Media & Real Life

---

Developed By Parth Shah

Social Media & Real Life

- Dear Friends / Viewers, This is Parth Here. In November 2016, I just deleted my Facebook Account. The main reason is I want to enjoy my real life. Since last 5 Years I'm truly enjoying Single and Spiritual life.
- I'm just counting my Network → School Friends [5] → College Friends [5] → Relatives [25]. Network finished within 35 People. In real life, I'm finding supportive people. There are two types of people in this world. 1st Supportive People and 2nd Fault Finder. Parth is staying away from 2nd type of people.
- Every time Social Media is not true. Don't consider Social Media as a Signature Stamp. Sometimes Parents are worried about Kids Activities. Virtual life is more visible than reality. Please share all your activities to Supportive People. They will surely appreciate you without finding your mistakes.

Social Media & Real Life

- In Real life, Social Media usage is important but only 30% out of 100%. For more Information please refer this link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eQ4Gx21novE>
- Don't prove yourself to others. Prove yourself to your Parents only. Parents are the only people Who really appreciate you without any Selfishness. Productivity is important rather than Facebook Likes and Comments.
- Don't Celebrate your Birthday on Social Media. On your Birthday, Just do 2 things. 1st is taking Parents Blessings and 2nd is taking God Blessings. God Blessings are more important rather than any other thing. When you take Old Age Relatives blessing then Sometimes they are doing Partiality in giving true Blessings.